FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Wynnum Manly Historical Society's show, "Echoes from the Past" is not far away now. I hope you have put Saturday, 23rd May at 2pm in the Municipal Hall in your diary. Tickets are selling fast, so I encourage you to buy them soon so not to be disappointed. A lot of work has gone into the Show. Research for the performance was undertaken by Jill Greenhill. I am also indebted to Myrtle Beitz for information supplied by her from "Mangroves to Moorings". Lena McCreadie and Myrtle along with other dedicated members of the Society have put a lot of work into making afternoon tea a success. I have also been delighted by the support we have had from other community groups. These include Sue Willingham, president of the Wynnum Manly Arts Council, who is directing the show. Members of the Arts Council and the Writers Group have also contributed to the show as actors and writers. I also need to mention Jon Hulett who is the MC for the show. Jon is an excellent speaker and holds the performance together. Other contributors have been Cec Rebetzke from Mercury Theatre, Jo Toia from Savoyards and Joan Boardman Smith, all of whom have parts in the play as well as organising their groups to perform. Contributions to the show will be from the Wynnum Choral Society, Momentum, Savoyards Singers, Mercury Theatre, Caprice Dancing School and the Ormiston Pipe and Drum Band. I am also indebted to the Wynnum and Manly business community who have supported the show. The Show will finish at approximately 4pm after a performance by our own local singer Glad Graveson followed by drawing the raffle (there are a lot of good prizes) and afternoon tea. I hope to see you there.

Preparations are well underway for next bus trip to Stradbroke Island on Saturday 27th of June. We will visit the Historical Museum at Dunwich and after lunch travel to Point Lookout. We are booked on the 9am barge so we will have to leave the Civic Centre at 7.45am. It will be a wonderful day so purchase your tickets soon and don't miss out.

I was saddened to recently hear of the destruction by fire of the historical Caboonbah Homestead. It was only last year that we visited the site on our trip to Toogoolawah. I extend our sympathies to the people of the Brisbane Valley who have lost an important part of their heritage. We also need to make every effort to preserve our own local heritage. On my recent trip to Tasmania I was astounded by how much time and money is put into preserving and promoting their past. In a coming meeting I would like to talk about my trip and the enjoyable experiences I had

In the local area, a recent workshop at Manly discussed ways of modernising the historic Manly shops and business area. The proposal entailed high rise buildings similar to what has been approved for Wynnum. Jill Greenhill and Lena McCreadie attended this workshop and will explain more at our next meeting. The Manly Pool is now closed and work will commence in the near future on a new pool and toddlers' pool. The new pool is set to open sometime next year. I also noted in a recent letter to the "Wynnum Herald" the writer complaining about the shorter length of the pool. The pool will be shortened from 33 1/3 yards (30metres) to 25 metres. I am told by the Brisbane City Council that 25metres is the norm. Let's hope the new pool meets everyone's expectations.

Don't forget our next meeting on 21 May 2009. I hope to see you all there.

Brian Brandenburg, President

NEWS FROM THE RESOURCE CENTRE

Resource Centre Report - May 2009.

- From last month:

“Does anyone remember a General Store situated in Clara Street, between Bay Terrace and Tingal Road? “

Several members responded and the opinion seems to be that the shop in question was the back entrance to BCC Stores which was situated in Edith Street and went through to Clara Street.

- Last week, one of our visitors, Mrs Patricia NOSSAL, who lives in Canberra, was visiting her daughter Virginia WIND. Virginia lives in Bulimba. They came to us seeking information about William Henry BROCKLEBANK, Mrs Nossal's grandfather.

We found William Henry. He married three times. He lived in Ravenswood as Bank Manager in 1892, then moved to Vulture Street, South Brisbane in 1895. He arrived in Manly in 1904. In 1917 he was living in Arnold Street, and then moved to Melville Terrace in 1928. He died in 1937 when it was recorded that his father's name was Thomas Brocklebank.

Mrs Nossal thought that the family had previously been associated with a shipping line. From the Internet was found a reference to “Thomas and John Brocklebank” who founded the “Brocklebank Line” in 1801 at Whitehaven, England. The Company grew and traded around the world, only winding up in 1983.

Mother and daughter left us, armed with a map to seek the possible locations of the homes of grandfather, William Henry in Manly and a promise that they will seek a photograph of William Henry and more information of the family for our “Pioneer Register”.

- This week we are participating in the annual “National Trust” Heritage Week, which extends from Sunday 10 May to Sunday 17 May. Our entry is in the catalogue and we will be opening on Saturday morning this week.

BRING & BUY TABLE – Donations needed

Do you have any unwanted gifts, plants, vegetables, homemade jam, cakes, biscuits, crafts you make, purses, handbags, unused towels, teapots, crockery (to name a few ideas) that you could donate to the Society for the Bring & Buy Table. All proceeds from the bring and buy table are passed onto the Resource Centre to provide more resources and equipment for members.

OUR PIONEERS – Henry James CARR - 1879-1955

The Society has a continuing Project to collect information on persons residing in Wynnum, Manly Lota and District before 1912. In 1912 Wynnum became a town in its own right and there were only a few hundred people residing here at that time. This month we feature Henry James CARR.

Joseph CARR as born in Manchester in 1840. His trade was zinc-plate working and plumbing. He came to Brisbane in 1864 and travelled and worked at stations and sugar works. He was one of the first men to visit the Gympie goldfields. In 1871 he returned to Brisbane and worked with Mr Hiram WAKEFIELD for about 18 years. He married Elizabeth Dyer RALPH on 30 April 1878

The first child Henry James CARR was born on 21 February 1879. Henry spent his early years in the Morningside district growing up in a large family, having ten brothers and sisters.

After leaving school he became an apprentice to a tinsmith, which in today's society would be equivalent to a plumber.

When 21 years old, he joined the 6th Queensland Imperial Bushman Contingent for training, before leaving Australia for service in South Africa during the Boer War. The number assigned to him on his enlistment was 250. His younger brother Sydney (No. 324) also joined this Contingent and saw service in South Africa. This Contingent served in South Africa from 2nd May 1901 to 17th May 1902.

On returning from the war Henry married Catherine Evans in 1906 and they set up house in Wynnum. They had two girls, Catherine Mabel, who was a special birthday present in 1908, being born the day before her father's birthday, and Ella Margarreta born in 1909.

After his marriage, Henry changed his occupation from tinsmith to butcher. His first butcher shop was in Bride Street, Wynnum and he later moved to premises in Bay Terrace, Wynnum Central. This occupation change may not have been for the best, as an altercation with a mincing machine resulted in the loss of three and a half fingers and nearly his life. The reason being, that his transportation to hospital was by horse and cart to Balmoral Cemetery, where an ambulance from the Brisbane Hospital ferried him for the remainder of the journey, and the subsequent surgery.

Henry and Catherine CARR

His accident did not deter him from his business and he continued supplying meat to the residents of the district until his retirement in the late 1940s.

Early in their marriage, Henry and his wife Catherine purchased a large home in Florence Street, Wynnum that they turned into a boarding house and operated until their death. During the Second World War, the American Navy commandeered the house and it was used for R &R by their troops for the duration of the war.

SPOTLIGHT ON ... Member and this month's speaker, PETER HUGHES

My full name is Peter Melbourne Hughes.

I came into this world in my maternal grandparents' home "Stoneleigh" in Kirkland Avenue, Coorparoo on 2 November 1932. This was the day that Peter Pan won the first of his two Melbourne Cup wins – hence my given names.

My paternal grandparents farmed the Allora area on the Darling Downs in the latter part of the 19th century.

My maternal grandparents pioneered the Hemmant/Lytton area from 1863 to 1899. My maternal grandmother, Emma Popham, was the nineteenth student enrolled at the Bulimba Primary School (later changed to Hemmant) in 1864.

In 1934, my father obtained worked in the Macknade sugar mill on the Herbert River. Because of this, my family of four comprising my father, mother and elder brother, Geoff, left Coorparoo to live at Cordelia near Ingham. We lived in a very basic house with no power, no water and galvanised iron walls.

My father rejoined the Army in June 1941 after serving in the AIF from 1915-1919. When war broke out with Japan in December 1941, it was time to leave the North as he was away. We left Ingham on the Tuesday afternoon train and arrived in Brisbane on Friday morning. The troop trains heading north caused the delay.

We stayed with aunts at Coorparoo and Kandanga near Gympie until October 1942 when we came to Wynnum Central. My Aunt Elsie found a flat for us in old "Beach House" opposite the wading pool.

I attended Wynnum Central State School for Grades 4 and 5 in 1943 and 1944, then to the Wynnum Intermediate for Grades 6 and 7 in 1945 and 1946. After passing scholarship, my mother and Aunt Elsie decided to enrol me at the Church of England Grammar School to put some good Christian teachings in a young man's head.

During my high school holidays, two other boys and I took three long distance bike rides. One was to Stanthorpe where we picked fruit for five weeks and the others were to two army cadet camps. I also boxed and did P.T. at the Gordon Club.

I passed the Junior Exam and then worked as a Clerk at the Royal Brisbane Hospital (General) for two years before serving in the RAAF for four years.

During Christmas leave in 1952, I met my future wife, Beryl Hale, from Gumdale. I left the RAAF in 1954 and joined Lawrence & Hanson Electrical Wholesalers in Elizabeth Street. The company moved to Spring Hill and then to the Gabba and finally to Mansfield where I was Branch Manager. I retired after 39 years with them.

Beryl and I were married in May 1956 and lived at Gumdale (Chandler) on 2 ½ acres which we purchased from her father. Her dad and I built our house and we lived there until 2007 when we moved to Belmont.

I have lived an active life enjoying club fishing for many years. I had a very popular vegetable stall on our Archer Street, Gumdale, property for many years after I retired.

I have only been a member of our Society for a few years. I should have joined much earlier!

Peter Hughes
