FROM THE EDITOR

Sandy Liddle

Unfortunately, due to other commitments, I was unable to attend the last bus tour. From all accounts, it sounds like a great time was enjoyed by all.

Our next bus tour is to Boonah. Details have not yet been finalised by do keep 24 September 2011 free for this one.

We are holding our fundraising event of the year on 10 September at Lota House. It will be a Scottish themed afternoon. Start finding those tartan clothes to wear along. Tickets will be on sale at the next meeting and at the Resource Centre so please support this event.

It may seem early to start preparing for our end of year Christmas raffle, but the way the year has flown by already it will be upon us before we know it. Please start gathering items together for our Christmas Hamper. We will be calling for donations in the coming months.

In a similar vein, Deborah Tearle is beginning the arduous process of preparing the supper roster for 2012. Please let her know if you will be unavailable at any time during 2012. Deborah is also desperately seeking more volunteers to assist with supper. If you can help out just once a year, please contact Deb. We all enjoy our suppers after the meetings and your help is greatly appreciated.

On a closing note for this month, I would like to congratulate Ian and Sandra Wheeler on becoming great-grandparents for the first time!

Until next month.

SOCIETY EMAILS

In the intervening period between our general meetings, the Society's committee often finds out about interesting events and items of interest that will happen at short notice. We would like to be able to let as many members as possible now about these events and items of interest.

For those of you who have provided us with an email address, Anne Hall (our publicity officer) would like to email you to let you know. Anne will shortly be emailing all members who have provided an email address to make sure that you have no objection to receiving interim emails and reminders of events on behalf of the Society. If you do not wish to receive emails, please reply to Anne's email advising her.

For those of you who have an email address who have not yet provided your email details, please do so. Anne's email address is publicity@wmhs.org.au

DATE CLAIMERS - Upcoming WMHS events

The Society has a couple of events planned for September so please put these dates in your diary. Further details will be provided in the near future.

Saturday, 10 September (2pm – 4pm) - "Our Scottish Connections" - Come and support the Society's fundraising event of the year at historic Lota House. This will be a Scottish themed afternoon. Tickets on sale at next meeting or at the Resource Centre. Cost is $10.00 per person.

Saturday, 24 September - Heritage bus tour to Boonah.

Help needed - Supper

Our hardworking Supper Coordinator, Deborah Tearle, is in desperate need of your help. Due to illness being suffered by many of our members, we are finding ourselves with a shortage of volunteers to assist with the supper. Deborah is therefore seeking some more volunteers. You will only be providing supper once a year. If you can assist, please telephone Deborah on 3396 9697 or email her supper@wmhs.org.au.

Deborah is also in the process of starting to prepare the supper roster for the 2012 year. If you are currently on the roster, can you please advise her of any months you will not be available in 2012 so she can adjust the roster accordingly.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

What are your memories of school days? I grew up in the Wynnum/Manly area and my recollections of going to Wynnum Central State School and later Lota State School are vivid. I have a photograph of my first year at school. The Prep B class of 1952. I started off in the wooden buildings and later graduated to the imposing brick building. Thinking back, my strongest memories are of my fellow students and teachers and the sights, sounds and smells of the school and growing up in Wynnum at this time. One of my favourite teachers was Miss Cameron, who encouraged me to sing. She said I had a good voice. At lunch time she would coach me, while my fellow classmates sniggered out of sight. I later had my voice trained, which led me to join the Wynnum Choral Society. Thank you Miss Cameron.

I didn't like all of my teachers. At a recent school reunion, one of my classmates remembered me walking backwards to school. I didn't want to go. In fact, sometimes I "wagged" it. One time I went fishing on the old Wynnum North Jetty. I caught a fish. Then I had to explain to Mum how I came by it. "I found it on the beach" I said. I don't think Mum believed me. My biggest fear was of getting the "cuts". It only happened once. A group of us playing "hide and seek" hid under a teacher's car. All very innocent, but a crime that warranted the "cane". I remember waiting my turn outside the Headmaster's office. There was no hope of acquittal or reprieve. It never happened again.

My memories of school life are mostly good. I have a photograph of me dressed as a little "Dutch Boy". I didn't look too happy in the shot as my cap had only just arrived. I soon joined the excited throng of students dancing around the May Pole. Then there were the end of year break up parties. They were usually held in a shelter shed down at the Wading Pool. The feeling of excitement that the holidays were about to start was only marred because Mum asked me to take my little brother. It cramped my style but he stole the show.

It was sad to see Wynnum Central State School close down last year. During the open day, I looked into some of the rooms where I was taught. I remember listening to educational radio programs in one room. Some of the old speakers still hang on the walls. I saw a black and white film of Dicken's "Great Expectations". The gloom of Victorian England is forever etched on my memory. There was also a print of painting called "Mazeppa's Ride". It featured a man tied to a galloping horse. I looked for it when I visited the school. I had to find out what it was all about. Mazeppa was a young man who lived in Russia in the 17th Century and fell in love with the daughter of an aristocrat. The romance was forbidden and as a punishment he was tied to a wild horse and sent off. He survived this ordeal and became a great horseman and army general. I had learnt something. All this from a print which hung on the walls of Wynnum State School.

These are some of my school memories. What are yours? At our next meeting, Myrtle Beitz will give a talk entitled from "Slates to Ipads" in which she will recount her school days. I hope I have made you think about your experiences at school as I am looking for people to interview.

I recently was shown by my neighbour, a photograph of Lota in 1935. He bought it in a shop at the old Myer Centre at Coorparoo. Photographs of Brisbane and suburbs, including Wynnum and Manly, can be accessed on a website www.orginhistoricphotos.com.au There is a cost involved if you wish to purchase them. I have also seen a 1930's photo of the Dawn Service in the park adjacent to the Manly RSL. Bob Bonney from the Manly RSL is looking for photographs and memorabilia of the Manly RSL for their 75th Anniversary to be held on the 24th September. Let me know if you have any items and I will copy them and pass them on. Also remember that the WMHS is always looking for historic photographs for our archives in the Resource Room. Contact Jill Greenhill if you have any.

Plans are underway for our next coach tour on Saturday 24th September. We will be visiting the Boonah area. Also the WMHS will be represented at the opening of the "Lota Camping Ground Reserve on Sunday 24th July between 9am and 11am.

I hope to see you at our next meeting.

- Where was this photograph taken?

Thanks to Ian Wheeler we find that this photograph was taken at Cleveland (and not Manly as first suggested).

The monument is now near the corner of Passage and Shore Streets. The identity of the building is still being questioned. One source say the old Post Office now demolished whilst another say the old Memorial Hall, now located in the Show Ground near to the Redlands Museum.

Our enquiries continue!

This message was received from a visitor to Wynnum last weekend (3 July 2011).

"I was wondering if someone could assist me with the history of the structure in the attached photo. Were they part of a jetty or something else and when were they constructed?"

Your help is appreciated.

Kind Regards,

I hope everyone in the Society knows the answer!

Neville Balue came to Wynnum in 1922 to work on the recently installed electricity service. He converted a 25' sailing boat to a bay boat and called her "Lizzie". He applied to the then Town Council of Wynnum to build a slip for her at the bottom of Havelock (Penfold) Parade. The boat and the slip passed to his son-in-law and the hardwood posts stand today a useful perch for the pelicans and the seabirds. Note the holes in the posts. The boat to be serviced is floated between the posts on high tide and the bearers adjusted beneath. When the tide ebbs, the barnacles can be scraped off the bottom of the boat in readiness for painting.

Steve's reply, on receiving the information was "When I eventually get to post my photos on Flickr.com, I will give you full accreditation for the information you have so graciously provided".

- Where was this hall located in Lindum?

"Lindum Progress Hall came alive yesterday (20/02/1979) when more than 40 of the area's pioneers got together for morning tea. He Pioneer Day is an annual event organised by the Lindum Progress Association . . ."

Wynnum-Redlands Herald

Can anyone remember the Hall or details of the Lindum Progress Association?

This is the main staircase inside Mt Carmel Convent at 199 Bay Terrace Wynnum.

The convent, a home for the Sisters of Mercy, was blessed and dedicated on 8 August 1915 by Archbishop Duhig. The building was designed by F R Hall and R S Dods and cost £8,000 to build. The Sisters of Mercy had been visiting Wynnum since 1903 when mass was celebrated in the Shire Hall. In 2011 the Convent is empty and for sale

In which building do you see this staircase?

The office of the "Wynnum Herald" has moved to Logan Road, Mount Gravatt, to share a larger office with two other suburban newspapers. The reason for the move is attributed to economic restructuring and economy of scale, or perhaps, just to cut down on costs!

Whilst clearing out the former Wynnum office they found a "Wynnum Herald and Manly Observer" of 1927, 'Conducted by Sydney A Keily'.

Wynnum Municipal Reserve

(Parkland surrounding the Shire Clerk's Cottage)

Corridor Recovery Project

The Bayside Creeks Catchment Group plans to dramatically improve the function and values of this ecological corridor, by creating a sustainable habitat for wildlife and increasing the public amenity, by developing a natural area parkland. The local community will be activated and educated on biodiversity and bushland value, function and management. The project will display a best practice model of business, government and environmental groups working together to deliver significant economic, social, ethical and environmental outcomes possible in a capital city.

Who is involved:

The “Wynnum Creek Warriors” is a non-incorporated group, sponsored by the Bayside Creeks Catchment group. Private landholders from the surrounding neighbourhood have also volunteered their time to work on the project.

Bulimba Creek Catchment Committee is providing technical support and in-kind sponsorship of this project.

Work to date:

Currently the Wynnum Creek Warriors have removed 200 metres of invasive weeds, planted over 1000 plants, and laid over 210 cubic metres of mulch in Wynnum Municipal Reserve and along the railway siding next to Barton's Bayside Holden.

Over winter we are doing maintenance work, mulching, weeding and preparing sites for a spring planting.

Future Work Proposed:

The team wants to progressively move downstream, which means entering into the entryway of the Leisure Centre, and coming around the top bank of the Shire Clerk Cottage. Many weeds in this area will be removed and replaced with natives, including the umbrella tree's and banana tree's.

These works will include revegetating the existing jute-matted bank within Wynnum Municipal Reserve, replanting the entryway to the Shire Clerk Cottage, removing and replacing weeds with natives along the creekbank at the front of the shire clerk cottage.

Over a period of approximately 10 years the camphor laurels along the roadside on Tingal Road will be progressively removed, and replaced with native vegetation. The replanting will be done in consultation with Energex, to ensure that the powerlines are not affected by the new tree's. Each year 4 new sites will be worked on, and progressively the project will move downstream until the whole of the creek bank, behind the shire clerk's cottage and along behind the leisure centre on both sides of the creek is revegetated.

Sponsorship:

Year 1 works were sponsored by Barton's Bayside Holden, Landcare Australia and Brisbane City Council they contributed $40,000 which was spent forming garden beds, weeding, planting and mulching the top of the banks of Wynnum Creek.

We are currently negotiating with Barton's Bayside Holden, and Brisbane City Council to deliver the year 2 program.

We are also currently writing an application for a Federal Government Grant to help fund portions of this program and to provide money to private landholders for the work they are planning to do along the creek on their own land.

What you can do:

Go and look at the site. If you are aware of any tree's or plants of historical significance (e.g. the banana tree's, the umbrella tree's or the camphor laurels). Then please let us know about them. We do not wish to destroy vegetation of local historical significance, as these plants are now common weeds they will be removed from the site and these areas replanted with native vegetation unless you can tell us why they shouldn't be removed.

You can talk about this project with your neighbours and friends and let them know what we are doing and why and encourage them to be involved and lend a hand during our working bee's.

You can encourage local neighbours in the area to get in contact with us, we may have some funds in the future to spend on private property to rehabilitate private creek banks, so please encourage private landholders to come forward and contact us so that we can negotiate some funds for them.

Who to call for more information:

Bayside Creek Ranger – Brooke Hynch on 0419 726 543 for further information.

Activities planned for the next 12 months

- Activity 1 – weeding and re-mulching (some replanting may occur)
- Activity 2 – progressive weed removal, jute-matting and revegetation.
- Activity 3 – progressive removal of large camphor laurels, jute-matting and revegetation
- Activity 4 – entry statement and steep bank, weed removal and revegetation
- Activity 5 – top of the bank (amongst the bench seats) – weed removal and re-vegetation
