FROM THE EDITOR

Sandy Liddle

Welcome to 2010 everyone. Hope you all had an enjoyable and safe Christmas break. It is hard to believe we are already into February.

It looks like the Society has a busy year ahead and the committee has already been hard at work arranging speakers for our meetings and making preliminary plans for our heritage tours for the year amongst other things. If anyone ever has any suggestions for places to visit or for speakers, please let the committee know as ideas are always most welcome.

Our next heritage tour will take place on 27 March so lock that date into your diaries.

March is our Annual General Meeting so if anyone is interested in nominating for a committee position, nominations are now open. Further details and nomination forms are contained in the newsletter. Please consider helping out the Society. It is a great way to have a say in the running of the Society. No experience is needed but enthusiasm is more than welcome.

Due to certain circumstances, some of our supper roster volunteers have had to withdraw their services in June and October. Deb Tearle is therefore looking for a few more volunteers to help out with the supper roster in June and October. If you can help, please let her know.

I am once again seeking more member profiles. Please consider submitting your profile to include in the newsletter. It need not be long and it can be handwritten. You are an important part of the Society and our members want to know a bit about you.

Also if anyone has any interesting articles regarding the Wynnum/Manly district that they would like to include in the newsletter, please do let the committee know. We are always looking for articles of interest for the newsletter.

This month we are also conducting a referendum. Details are contained later in the newsletter. Please do submit your response on or before 1 March 2010 so your voice is heard.

Until next month.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome back everyone. The year is off to a busy start. The WMHS were well represented at the Australia Day celebrations at Bandstand Park. I am always amazed by the amount of people who are interested local history, especially from people who are new to the district and want to find out more about the past. Jill Greenhill, our librarian, put up a wonderful display. There were also bags of lollies for the children. Many thanks to Jill and the dedicated team of volunteers who made this event successful.

The Manly Pool opened in November last year. From all reports it is a popular and well patronised venue. I also understand that it is to be heated, so all year swimming will be available. It is wonderful that this facility, with so much local history, is still available for public use. The Manly Pool will be the subject of my spot speaker talk at the next meeting. I would like to recount some of the history of the pool, the efforts to save it and what the new pool offers.

I spent an enjoyable evening recently at a ceremony to celebrate the turning on of the night lights at the Wynnum Croquet Club. It was only recently that I was there for the dedication of the 'Sands Family Green'. The membership of the club are a friendly and helpful group. During the year we will organise an event for the WMHS where we can be taught to play croquet and enjoy a lunch. It will be fun.

The Christmas holidays seem a long way off now. My vacation reading, while relaxing on Bribie Island, included Thomas Welsby's 'Early Moreton Bay'. His knowledge of the Bay brought so many incidents to life. The wreck of the 'Sovereign' in 1847 vividly recounted this terrible tragedy. His understanding of the Aborigines, told the story of their way of life and customs. Another story was about a band of desperate convicts who escaped from Norfolk Island and landed at Dunwich. I look forward to our first speaker for the year who is to talk on Thomas Welsby.

Preparations are in hand for our first trip of the year. I will have more details available for our meeting in February. Also don't forget the Oral History Day coming up on the 8th May.

I hope to see you at the next meeting.

- The Resource Centre opened after the Christmas Break on Monday 12 January 2010. Many thanks to those volunteers who have worked there during the summer break.

- January 26 2010 saw the Society set up in Bandstand Park, in a light and airy white tent, for the Australia Day celebrations. The theme of the displays was “Australia’s Birthday” and a great interest was shown by members of the community, who really had come to the celebrations for their free breakfast. Many thanks to all helpers.

Opening Ceremony 26 January 2010

The Society's display on 26 January in Bandstand Park

- We have an enquiry from a relation of the PAVEY family. Matthew PAVEY married Ann Whalley in 1870 and they produced eleven children. Tom, a carpenter, Walter, a baker and Harry, a butcher, and their families seem to feature in the life of Wynnum. Please can anyone add more information of the lives and occupations of the family members?
- Myrtle Ryan has donated to the Society some of her late husband's black and white photographs, featuring the 1974 floods. Maybe we need a little help in identifying the locations some of the shots.
- A visitor is looking for information about Austin Taylor SATTERTHWAITE (or SNELL). He was in the district from 1919 to 1930. He was an army cook and his wife's maiden name was Annie McLean.

Are there any members who could spare a couple of hours on a few Wednesday or Thursday mornings to help staff the Resource Room?

Till next time, Jill Greenhill
Librarian

The mystery photograph is taken at the mini-golf course, located behind Wynnum Hospital, between the hospital and the bushland, which is adjacent to the railway line.

The two-hole course was used for practice. Frank Hunter was a dental technician at the Wynnum Hospital and died of cancer in the late 1990's. His picture can be seen on the top right side of the sign.

WE NEED YOUR OPINION

Friends of Tingalpa Cemetery are putting forward a proposal to name the man-made bay lying between Darling Point and the northern wall of the Manly Harbour, now known locally as Rose Bay, as Arnold Cove. This inlet is part of Waterloo Bay.

The Committee feels that such a decision should be considered by all of our members.

ROSE BAY

The stretch of water is presently referred to by local people as Rose Bay. Eastwood Beach, opened by Wynnum Manly Rotary in 2003, was reported as being on Rose Bay The Manly Harbour Village Magazine names Rose Bay on its maps.

The title has never been gazetted but has arisen from local usage. It is not known exactly when this name was first used, but the bay was not in existence until after 1958 when the construction of Manly Boat Harbour was commenced

ARNOLD COVE

Mary Leuthwaite (neeArnold) married in 1868 and her husband owned Wyvernleigh. Her husband died in 1873. Her three brothers David, James and John were already occupying the land when they became registered as owners of Portions 57 and 78 on 21 July 1882. The land was subdivided for residential development as "Manly Beach" Waterloo Bay, Wyvernleigh in 1882.

David served on the Bulimba Divisional Board No. 2 Subdivision in 1887and on the the Kianawah Divisional Board in 1888. In the Postal Directories of the time he is listed as a grazier.

The Arnolds were recognised in Manly in their own era with the naming of Arnold Street in the first subdivisions. This name is still in use today.

OTHER NAME

If the bay is to have a gazetted name, why not choose another pioneer, or local identity, or icon to further enhance historical interest of Manly. A local suggestion has already been made to find a deserving female. Suggestions might be:

TODD - Mary Todd was running the first Manly Beach kiosk by 1906. She opened the Canberra Coffee Lounge in 1916, on the site now occupied by the Manly Hotel.

PATON – Janet Paton operated an early store on Stratton Terrace and was in charge of Paton's Assembly Hall

COOLING – George Cooling, "Dirty George", was Manly's first photographer, sailing into Manly in 1900. He rode around the district, with his camera, on is motor cycle tied up with wire and string. Many of his photographs remain in the district.

STRAND – The Strand Theatre stood on the Manly Esplanade at this location.

SCHMIDT – Ron Schmidt, former local tradesman and chair of the Manly Centenary Committee spent 45 years in business and local community activity.

RIX – the Rix family provided land for the Lota Presbyterian Church

Are there any more possible names that you could suggest?

Please make your choice and return this slip to the next meeting, to the Resource Centre or post to The Secretary, Wynnum Manly Historical Society, PO Box 318 Wynnum Q 4178

SPOTLIGHT on .... PETER LIDDLE

I am a new member of the Wynnum Manly Historical Society and as the husband of the Society's newsletter editor, I have been coerced into providing my profile.

Whilst not physically born in Wynnum, I grew up in the Wynnum Manly area. I was the second son born to Malcolm and Daphne Liddle.

I attended Manly West State School from 1966-1972. I was in Grade 1 when I first met my wife, Sandy! After leaving primary school, I attended Iona College for a year and then Wynnum North State High School. I left school after finishing Year 10 as was usual during this time.

Showing what a small world it is, I was apprenticed to Percy Duke (whom I am sure is well known to most of you) as a Fitter and Turner. Percy's business was called Diesel and Machinery Services. Percy was a hard taskmaster however this is something that I now thank him for (although at the time I wasn't thanking him!) as it made me into a better tradesman. I worked for numerous engineering shops after completing my apprenticeship including Fisher & Paykel where I was a Maintenance Fitter for many years.

During my childhood years, I enjoyed playing sports. I played cricket at representative level and my claim to fame is that I beat Wally Lewis to become the Queensland Schoolboys Wicketkeeper. I also played Rugby League at school and for the Wynnum Manly Seagulls. Trail bikes were also another passion of mine and I used to race them at various meets around Southeast Queensland.

For many years now I have been a member of the Volunteer Coastguard Manly Flotilla which is a pastime I thoroughly enjoy. It is nice being available to help out the boating community whilst at the same time indulge in my love of the water. I'm not sure where this love of the water came from but it may perhaps have been through my maternal grandparents who used to live on Wynnum Esplanade near the Wynnum Fish Markets. I spent much of my childhood at their place playing and fishing in that area near Wynnum Creek.

My passion these days is fishing and boating. I regularly go crabbing, fishing and kayaking in our beautiful Moreton Bay. I don't think my love affair with Moreton Bay will ever end.

I have many happy memories of growing up in the Wynnum Manly area and am keen to see the area's history recorded and retained for future generations.
