Presidents Report

This time last year Doug and I were visiting our daughter and her family in the UK. The weather had started to turn cold and the long evenings were gone due to the clocks returning to GMT after the summer months on BST (daylight saving). The leaves on the trees were turning from green to red and gold before falling to the ground and becoming a bit of a hazard after a shower of rain. Still it was beautiful to experience the changing of the seasons.

With November now upon us and the approach of Armistice Day on November 11, my memory returned to this time last year when we joined our son-in-law Peter and his family at Remembrance Sunday church service in the beautiful village of Hartley Whitney (Hampshire). Peter's Great, Great Uncle lived in the village and this was where he enlisted for WWI. He was killed on the 14 November 1917 at Passchendaele. On the Tuesday following the church service (which marked the actual date of his death) the bells of the church were rung 100 times to mark the 100 years since his death. It was a very moving service. After the wreath laying ceremony the family adjourned to the Cricketer's pub for lunch (it is a beautiful historic pub dating back to the 18th Century. The pub is steeped in history and faces onto the village cricket green which houses the oldest, continuously played, cricket pitch and club in England. There were no matches on the day we were there). There were three generations of the family present. Including Peter's parents, brother, aunt and cousins and their families.

Armistice Day is commemorated every year on 11 November to mark the armistice signed between the Allies of World War I and Germany at Compiègne, France, for the cessation of hostilities on the Western Front of World War I, which took effect at eleven o'clock in the morning—the "eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month" of 1918.

As this is the last newsletter for 2018, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the committee and recognise their tireless work and support they give to the Society to keep it running. I would also like to thank the members who man the resource room five days a week. Without your continuing dedication and support the resource room would not be open for members of the community to access information about the families and history of our area.

On that note I bring to your attention the invitation for all volunteers not just Wynnum Manly Historical Society volunteers but all volunteers in our community to attend the FREE International Volunteer Day Expo which will be held on Wednesday 5 December at the Alexandra Hills Hotel Function Rooms from 0900 – 1200. There will be a free morning tea plus giveaways and a lucky door. So, if you are in the area, please come along, this is an opportunity for the community to recognise and thank all of those who volunteer in our community.

All that is left is to wish you, one and all a Very Merry and Peaceful Christmas and a Happy and Safe New Year.

The first meeting for 2019 will be Thursday 21st February 2019.

Bremer River Junction Day Cruise

For the last two years we have endeavoured to reach the Bremer River Junction.

Cruises are sparse as there must be a suitable high tide and sufficient passengers!

There is a cruise sailing from Hamilton on Sunday 20 January 2019, past Indooroopilly, Jindalee and Moggill to the mouth of the Bremer River and return. Wonderful mansions and new developments feature on this cruise. The flood recovery from 2011 is mostly complete, only a few reminders remain.

If we can collect ten names of persons interested in a river trip next January, we can book a Maxi-Taxi to get us to and from Mowbray Park.

Cost $67 which includes Morning and Afternoon Tea and a BBQ lunch.

We need to collect a deposit ($30.00) now, if you are interested, as we will have to make a booking before Christmas to reserve tickets for the Lady Brisbane.

This article from a “Timberman” magazine of 1978 provides an excellent account of the Bunney family. Father, Albert Bunney began work in the sawmilling trade in 1907, and moved his business to Wynnum in 1938.

“Timberman of the month”

BUNNEY SONS CARRY ON A TIMBER TRADITION

‘Wood IS good’

HEAD of progressive timber business Albert Bunney and Sons Pty Ltd at Wynnum Central, one of Brisbane’s bayside suburbs, Mr E W (Ted) Bunney attributes the progress and success of the family undertaking to the sound planning foresight of his father, Albert Bunney, founder of the firm.

Hard work, dedication and “the customer is always right” have been keys to the solid development of the timber and hardware business established by the family in 1924.

Possessed of extreme modesty and a retiring nature, Mr Ted Bunney gives great credit to the devotion of a knowledgeable and loyal staff for the firm’s expanding business, which he also attributes to “our many business friends.”

Albert Bunney and Sons Pty Ltd located at 2 Ronald Street, Wynnum Central adjoins the bayside railway line for some 600 yards, with mill products ranging from huge imported Oregon logs, down to a selection of timber and fixtures to meet the demands of the handyman.

Ted Bunney, a qualified accountant, is now managing director of the four-brother business. Brother Directors are Cliff, who controls the timber yard activities, Ken, specializing in customer relations and sales and Roy, who handles the firm’s hardware division.

Ted Bunney told The Timberman that in the early 1920s the brothers received their “Wood is Good” baptism in sawdust, stacking pailings in the yard, packing and tying fruit shooks, cleaning shavings out of the planning machine (no blowers in those days) and loading railway wagons of firewood for Brisbane.

“Usually these activities took place after school and on Saturdays and we loved every minute of it” said Ted Bunney.

Probably this early training has been the strong influence on Ted Bunney, who says “there is no substitute for work” and whose ambition is to work harder to improve the family business, both for staff and customers.

“While we have a timber business, we also deal in people” he stressed.

Ted Bunney works long hours and while he is considered an outstanding home gardener, he says “work is my hobby”.

The firm’s founder, the late Albert Bunney, commenced work with Patterson’s of Toowong in February 1907, where he gained a comprehensive knowledge of the sawmilling industry.

In 1918 he was transferred to Coominya, to manage Patterson’s steam-operated mill.

With a partner, Albert Bunney bought this mill in 1924 and in 1926 he acquired his partner’s interest. When the depression hit in 1930 the family transferred to a dairy farm near Esk and while the family helped to support themselves on the farm Albert Bunney continued with the sawmill. Recovering slowly from his losses in the depression years, a timber yard was opened at Woolloongabba in the mid 1930s and in 1938 he received an offer of the Wynnum mill then owned by a Mr W Arthur.

Taking his family into business with him, he formed the present firm of Albert Bunney and Sons Pty Ltd. The company then took up the offer of the previous owner and the present industry at Wynnum Central was established. By that time, Ted Bunney had finished his education and was working for the meat company of J C Hutton Pty Ltd. In 1941 he resigned from this company to join his brothers in the timber business at Wynnum Central. In 1942 he enlisted in the army and after discharge in 1944 rejoined the family business in an administrative capacity and was appointed company manager in 1950.

In the meantime the company took over Mr Albert Bunney’s sawmill at Coominya and transferred it to Wynnum Central, where it remained in production until three years ago.

Over the last 30 years, the Bunney Brothers have gradually changed its major activity from that of sawmilling to merchandising and processing of sawn timber. They have become major building material suppliers to the building trade of Brisbane and suburbs.

In 1969 the firm’s founder, Albert Bunney, passed on to join the sawmilling fraternity on the other side and the four brothers, Ted, Cliff, Ken and Roy, who are the present directors, have been equally responsible for the continued operation of the firm.

“Today our timber business is mainly confined to receivals and distribution of all classes of timber. Supplies are drawn from mills in both Queensland and New South Wales,” said Ted Bunney.

“Imports of Oregon pine are made at frequent intervals, as this product is in constant demand by many clients.”

“The company operates modern planning and re-sawing plants and customers, be they old or new, are assured that what they ask for they receive,” said Ted Bunney.

“We enjoy a most favored repeat business and we prefer business friends to customers,” he stressed.

Albert Bunney and Sons Pty Ltd is one of the largest employers of labor in the bayside area of Brisbane with a staff of 75, many having served the company for more than 20 years. Ted Bunney places great emphasis on the firm’s solid organisation, efficiency and service to the building trade. Six large vehicles are used in daily delivery of orders to builders, tradesmen and home handymen.

In 1950 the Bunney business commenced the sale of builders hardware and this section is being continually modernized and developed. Ted Bunney told The Timberman that his father (Albert Bunney) was a foundation member of the Queensland Timber Stabilisation Board and for many years was the representative of the Brisbane Valley sawmillers on the board.

During World War II the Bunneys exported timber from its Coominya mill to Scotland for the construction of boat keels.

Fronting Wondall Road in the Wynnum district, the Bunneys have a large drying paddock. Timber brought into this yard is usually left to dry out for up to 24 months, depending on the species and dimensions. Ted Bunney visited New Zealand in 1954 attending the “Radiata Conference” and has traveled extensively throughout Australia inspecting mills, timber yards and merchandising outlets.

Resource Centre Report - November

- Our Room in the Community Centre

We are nearing the end of our 3-year lease on Room 1.08. Finally some window catches, to pull the windows together, have been installed and we are able to comfortably open and close the front windows. Though very small, we are still able to fit our resources into the Room and one or two visitors at a time.

However we are grateful to have the space, a permanent office. Though we do not have the constant stream of "Drop-Ins", of former days when we were located outside the old Public Library, some members of the public finding us from our advertising on our website. People who do visit usually have a definite query in mind.

We understand, through the grapevine, that all the nine tenants of the Wynnum Community Centre have applied for a following lease from December 2018.

- Link up with the "Wynnum Herald"

The Society is grateful to Acting Editor, Damian Bathersby, for the series of historical photographs and text that are appearing on page 2 or 3 of recent edition of the "Herald". Myrtle Beitz is responsible for inserting a photograph and caption daily on Facebook, making use of her late husband's extensive collection. So, we have allowed the Herald to make their choice from Facebook.

Recently pictures were inserted of the Wading Pool in the "Herald". A local lady, Heather contacted us for an enlargement for she was certain that her mother was sitting on the side of the pool, watching over her younger brother.

The photograph was enlarged and Heather is sure she now has a photograph of her mother and even her brother. The photograph was taken prior to 1958 as the timber jetty is still in the background and the old timber slide is in the Pool.

- A Pioneering Family of Wynnum

A recent visitor came seeking any information we had for Felix McCurley. We could help and also received some information to add to our collection as well.

Felix McCurley was born in Derryachey, Belfast, Northern Ireland in 1827 and at the age of 18 years joined the British Royal Engineers. He was stationed in Quebec Canada for 8 years and in 1852 married Margery Bell of Cavan, Ireland. The pair returned to Aldershot where Felix was stationed in an Army camp for 21 years. Eight children were born of which 5 survived. Felix became a Troop Sergeant Major before he retired and spent a further six years in England before the family left for Brisbane. The youngest child, Felix Arthur was born at Dough Boy Creek in 1873.

Felix bought seventy five acres from Mr William Poynton for £80.00, land now bounded by Lytton, (now Wynnum) Road, the golf course, that is Chandos Street, and West Avenue. The farm was basically used for market gardening.

During the early years, Felix was employed as a Warder on St Helena Island and was also involved in the Fort Lytton Garrison. He died in 1902.

The land went to the sons, James, David and Felix Arthur and gradually has been sold off and developed for residential developments. The subdivision incorporating present-day "McCurley Street" was named in recognition of this pioneering family.

If anyone has an interest in this area we have more information in the Resource Centre.

The Resource Centre will close on Friday 14 December 2018 for the Christmas holidays and re-open on Monday 14 January 2019.

Festive Greetings to all our Members and all our Readers.

See you in the New Year

William Russell Howard (1888 – 1963)

As reported in the Wynnum Herald of 24 July 1963

“Bill” Howard

DEATH OF EX-ALDERMAN

The death was announced yesterday, following a long illness, of Mr Willie Russell Howard, of 15 Seventh Avenue, Coorparoo and formerly of Wynnum.

An engineer by trade, the late Mr Howard was at one time manager of the Wynnum Fish Depot and Ice Works, but is better known for the work he undertook for the district's betterment when elected as a C.M.O. Alderman to the Brisbane City Council in 1940 – an office he held until 1952.

Whilst a member of the City Council, the late Mr Howard was chairman of the Health Committee for a period of 11 years. He was known for his singleness of purpose and for being one to come straight to the point in any business matters he dealt with, having no time whatsoever for trivialities. His energies were always directed to the improvement of the district in which he lived and worked.

FOUNDED RESCUE ASSOCIATION

It was back in 1948, after a boating fatality in which four young lives were lost, that the subject of these lines called a meeting from which was to be formed the Waterloo Bay Rescue Association and eventually, the building of the rescue launch “Dauntless”, which, since 1955, has carried out excellent work in the saving of lives in Moreton Bay.

Of the many activities the late Mr Howard associated himself with, a few to recall included his being a Past President of the Wynnum Bowling Club and a life member of Mt Gravatt Show Committee. He was also Past Master of the Masonic Order and Methodist Church.

For 26 years the late Mr Howard was actively associated with the Wynnum Ambulance, having been appointed to the committee in 1927. In 1931 he was elected treasurer and later in 1936 became deputy chairman and State Executive representative. The following year he was elected chairman and continued this office until January 1953, when he shifted residence.

For a time the late Mr Howard left the district to reside in Bundaberg, but his interest in the Bayside district never waned. For all the good he did for the development of the area, the memory of the public is, unfortunately very short and like many others before him, his works are forgotten.

One project which he fathered and which should be recognised today was the clearing and reformation of the old unkempt Hemmant Cemetery into the beautiful grounds of the present “Garden of Rest” on the same site.

The late “Bill” Howard was 75 years of age at the time of his death and the condolences of many in the district have been extended to the widow and family who survive.

The funeral service took place in the East Chapel at Mt. Thompson Crematorium today (Wednesday 24 July 1963), at 12.30 pm.
