Where was I? July 2007

I was looking at the roof-line of Harvey World Travel, on the south east corner of Bay Terrace and Florence Street. Photographs from the 1920's show the same shop, then Warwick House, with Douglas J Kennedy trading as a Fruiter and Confectioner, with a similar roofline.

Where am I? August 2007

I am in Bay Terrace . . .

Give your answer, and any details, to Jill Ph: 3393 3208 or Email: leslieg@powerup.com.au or deliver to the Resource Centre.

Resource Centre Report July 2007

From the Resource Centre -

- Does anyone know who was the previous proprietor of the business on the corner of the Esplanade and Florence Street, now trading as 'Grace's Fish Shop'?
- Alfred Graham Gain and Margaret Gain lived at 11 Chestnut Street in 1988/89. Does anyone have any more details?
- Heinrich Ludwig Eduard Ruthning was a solicitor in Brisbane from 1885. His home was in Cordelia Street South Brisbane, and he also had a holiday home, at 174 Gordon Parade Manly, where he died in 1916. Any more details please?

Thanks, Jill

Invitation to official opening Manly park

Sunday 19 August

10.30 am to 12.30 pm

As part of Manly's 125th Anniversary, the Brisbane Foreshore Development Team is having a ceremony to open the redeveloped parkland area adjacent to the historic Manly Pool.

Part of the area will be named Beitz Place and the Centenary rock and plaque have been replaced.

The Society has been asked to be part of the celebrations and we will have displays in the park.
