Bunya Mountains Trip 26 - 28 October

- We have a 22 seater bus that will take us to the magical Bunya Mountains.
- Accommodation has been arranged in several chalets
- All meals will be provided
- A local resident and author on the history of the Bunya Mountains will lead us on a guided tour of the district.
- Visit the Army Aviation Museum
- Be entertained at a nearby observatory

A couple of people have pulled out of the trip so there is still room if you'd like to come along.

The total cost is $400 and full payment is needed by the meeting night - 18 October 2007.

Please see Heather or Jill if you need any more information.

Last month's quiz...

Q: When did the first train arrive in Wynnum?

A: The line from Woolloongabba to Cleveland opened on 1 November 1889.

Q: Who was the first Mayor of Wynnum and in what year was he appointed?

A: At the first meeting of the Wynnum Town Council, on 12 February 1913, Sam Greene was selected, by the members, to be the town's first Mayor.

Resource Centre Report September 2007

From the Resource Centre -

Miss Pearly Wagner Fabian built the "Zelda" Arcade at 137 - 139 Bay Terrace in 1957/58. Does anyone know why the building was called "Zelda"? Who were the original and subsequent traders in the Arcade?

Jill

Where was I? September 2007

I was on Wynnum Central Esplanade at the entrance to the refurbished jetty, beside the wading pool. The work was commissioned by Wynnum Manly Rotary in 2003 to mark 50 years of the Club. The timber poles represent the original timber jetty built here in the 1880's.

Where am I? October 2007

Give your answer, and any details, to Jill .
Email: leslieg@powerup.com.au or deliver to Resource Centre.

As reported in 1933:

"Practically every advantage possessed by city dwellers is available to the residents of Wynnum. In 1923 an electric light scheme was installed to supply the various centres of the district. Since then expansion has been rapid. Today the number of consumers is nearly 4000..."
